Disease is an effect, not a cause. Its origin is within; its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure ever be effected. WAR-NER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that 95 PER CENT.

of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system. For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealty Kidneys, Lives and Kidneys and Formal Manager of the control of the first part of the control of the cont healty Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing Dicorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, initations and concections said to be just as good.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] MITCHELL'S STATION, Va., June 16, 1882. For a few years previous to, and until the accord year of the great war for "State Rights," there stood nestling within a copse of beautiful pines, about one mile west of this place, on the estate of the Rev. Dr. Philip Slaughter, a very neat and modest Chap el of the P. E. denomination called and known as Calvary-but, like many other houses of Divine worship in the South, it fell a prey to the reckless and relentless hatred of the Northern Soldiery, and its sacred walls and appurtances were torn down and carried of to be used for camp purposes in the immediate neighborhood, where a di-vision of Meade's Army lay encamped. Through the importanings of a young Miss Yager a large and elegant stained glass winlow was rescued from the general wreck. and taken by her home and preserved until after the war, and to-day it stands in the wall immediately above the chancel in the New Calvary Church as a memorial of that one, where, before the war, the Old Virginia gentry with their stately wives and accomplished and beautiful daughters of this neighborhood, were wont to meet and humbly offer up praises to the true and living

The new Calvary Church referred to above, is one which has been erected at this place within the past year principally through the liberality of a Southern gentleman now living in the City of New York, and which was duly consecrated to the service of the Lord to-day by the bishop, and certainly a more solemn and imposing ceremony it has not been our good fortune to witness in a long time. The delightful weather; the large assemblage of people; the presence of so many Divines; the towering form, the kindly eye, the sonorous voice and gentle manner of the much loved Bishop, and his masterly sermon and the continuation of the candidates and the dehightful singing, together with the consecration ceremony by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Philip Slaughter, Rev. John McGill (resident pastor,) Rev. Mr. Jackson, of Fauquier, and Rev. Mr. Clairborne, of Rapidan—the peace and quietude of the country and the earnestness and sincerity of he congregation made it one of those delightful and profitable seasons not possible of appreciation to the same extent elsewhere than in the country. After consecration and confirmation services, and just before dismissing the congregation for dinner the Bishop took occasion to explain the Bible meaning of consecrating a church, and in a forcible and concise manner, showed wherein it was eminently proper for God to have a house, consecrated to his exclusive use and purposes and as it was that he should, and did have, and set A very handsome assortment of JUVENILE BOOKS, suitable for prizes. Included are the "Katy Kid" series, "Little Ones Library," "Never-Give Up" Series," Little Pitcher set, Boy Blue Library, Dickens' Little Folks' Library, Proverb the church, for secular or festive purposes, the church, for secular or festive purposes, God in both instances requiring nothing more than a recognition of his divinity and an thority and accepting nothing less, hence the difference between God's house and other houses and God's day and other days, nothing more, naught

After morning exercises which lasted until nearly two o'clock, the congregation and visitors partook of a most bountiful lunch prepared by the ladies of the church and neighborhood, when at the ringing of the bell at 3 o'clock p. m., the as-semblage again met in the church and listened to a very able discourse delivered by the Rev. Mr.

Jackson, of Fauquier.
The kindly face and wise counsels of the Bishop the solemn and impressive services of the day, the universal sentiment of gratification expressed for the rebuilding of Calvary Church and the dedica-tion of the church, and the people to the service of the Master, are things which carry to our minds and our homes pleasant and enduring reflections.
